

Question 33 – March 26

Which of the following skin manifestations of inflammatory bowel disease can have a separate disease course from intestinal disease activity?

- A. Erythema nodosum
- B. Pyoderma gangrenosum
- C. Sweet's syndrome
- D. Aphthous ulcers

Answer: B

Pyoderma gangrenosum may run a separate course than the underlying inflammatory bowel disease.

Reference

Vavricka, S, et al. Extraintestinal manifestations of Inflammatory Bowel Disease. Inflammatory Bowel Disease 2015; 21:1982-1992.