

What is the reason this person has a common duct stone?

ANSWER: The misplaced surgical clip has served as a nidus for stone formation. Any foreign body within the duct can promote stone formation.